OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 22 October 1968

25X1

1. [REDACTED] Talked to Homer Lee Krout, Administrative Assistant to Representative Joel T. Broyhill (R., Va.), concerning Broyhill's letter on behalf of [REDACTED] a retired Agency employee. 25X1 I told Mr. Krout we were somewhat puzzled by the fact that [REDACTED] had gone 25X1 to see Broyhill inasmuch as Agency representatives were working with [REDACTED] on his problem at the same time that [REDACTED] had gone to see Broyhill. 25X1 I told Krout that with his permission we would call [REDACTED] directly and ask 25X1 him to come for further conferences on his problem referring to the fact that Broyhill had written to us on his behalf. Krout said this would be fine and that he would close out Broyhill's file on the case.

2. [REDACTED] Talked to Garner J. Cline, Counsel, House Immigration and Naturalization Subcommittee, concerning the impending visit by Cline and Representative Peter Rodino (D., N.J.) [REDACTED] I 25X1 informed Cline that arrangements have been made for RFE employees to meet with them and to present to Rodino a citation expressing their appreciation for his assistance in making it possible for them to obtain their citizenship. Cline was most pleased and will inform [REDACTED] of their schedule 25X1 when it becomes firm.
